SAPPHO.

Around me bloomed exotic strange and rare, Sweet o'ers filled the evening's balmy air, While all things seemed so beautiful and bright.

A sadness fell upon me deep as night; For, before my vision softly came Sweet Sappho's image—child of song and shame.

I knew her ancient love, I felt her wrongs, And lo! I wept o'er that sweet child of song. Mine eyes beheld that hapless Lesbian maid, Scorned of her love, deserted and betrayed;

I saw her agonized look, I heard her prayer, And her low wail of hopeless, wild despair; And then this view my changing vision gave: I saw her fair form sleeping on the wave,

And such a heavenly calm—face displayed I saw her smile, my hapless Lesbian maid, Then lo! a strange, sweet sympathy arose, And woke a chord responsive to her woes;

My heart felt heavy with the wrongs of years, And thick and fast down fell the blinding tears.

For what of grief had that fair Lesbian known I had not proved and nourished for my own? Ains for all those bitter pangs I sell as loss? The tears of Heaven are strange, mysterious ways—

Since Sappho sang, a curse has laid on song; Its votaries all are doomed to suffer and to be betrayed; Our last hope, like that lost Lesbian maid, Is death—the dark oblivion of the tomb, The friendly slumber of perpetual gloom.

ESSAYS BY AN OVERSEA MESSENGER.

Antelope, August 18th, 1870.

Major-General Cobb.

Gen. H. A. Cobb, of San Francisco, having been commissioned by Governor Haight Major-General of the Militia of the State of California, on Saturday evening last Major Allen, accompanied by the McMahon Grenadier Guard and several prominent military officers, tendered Gen. Cobb his commission, an account of which we copy from Saturday's Chronicle:

Last evening at eight o'clock, the McMahon Grenadier Guard formed in line, near their armory on Kearny and Summer streets, and from thence marched along the main street, to the residence of General Cobb, at Stockton, to Broadway, to 1314 Powell street, the residence of General Cobb, the newly appointed Major-General of the Militia of the State of California.

SANTA ROSA has raised $15,000 for the Southern Methodist College.

SOME Radicals of Santa Rosa were mortified because they had to serve on a jury with negroes.

ONE thousand bushels of barley were threshed from a seven-acre field, near Castroville, the other day.

THE Briggs brothers of Marysville will have a large Castor Oil Mill in full operation in a couple of weeks.

THE Annual Fair of the Upper Sacramento Agricultural Society, commences on the 26th of September.

A SCHOOL census lately taken in Chicago, gives the population at 306,035. Ten years ago it had a population of 160,000.

THE State Agricultural Fair commences at Sacramento, on Monday, September 12th, and lasts all the remainder of the week.

ANOTHER dreadful Colliery explosion occurred recently at Ailgh, Lancashire, England. Forty persons were killed, and many injured.

THE old Capital Guard of white men at Milledgeville, Georgia, has been removed and a new Capitol guard of black men substituted by Bullock.

THE census reports for the State are so complete and reliable that certain that the population of the State will exceed the general estimate, footing up fully 600,000.

THE English Government are busy removing all the cannon and shot from the fortification at Quebec, and shipping them to England. One ship load has already been dispatched.

The largest vessel in the Prussian navy is the King William, of 5,925 tons. This steamer was built in England for Turkey, but as he could not pay, Prussia got it. She has twenty-two guns and six hundred men.

THE Last Legislature of Missouri authorized the counties to compete for a School of Mines in the county, south of the center of the State, will probably get it, having voted to give $40,000 for it, and the town of Rolla giving $25,000 more.

Mrs. A. RICHARDSON, who resides on the Sutter Flats, about four miles from Yuba City, informs the Branner that from two trees, two years old from the seed, which had never been irrigated, she gathered 228 peaches—141 from one tree, and 87 from the other.

CHANG and ENG, the Siamese twins recently arrived from Liverpool. On the second day out Chang was attacked with paralysis, which affects his left side, and almost wholly deprives him of the use of his limbs and the power of speech. Eng has so far felt no symptoms of the illness.

VALEJO has this year loaded nine ships with wheat, against six loaded at San Francisco. The aggregate tonnage from Vallejo was 12,500 tons, valued at $400,000. The San. Ceasus is now taking in 2,200 tons more. Prices for shipping wheat range from $1.00 to $1.75 at Vallejo. Live stock freights from 22 1/2 to 23 per ton.

CALISTOGA says the Vallejo Chronicle is now well attended. Large numbers arrive and depart daily, the registers at the different hotels showing that the percentage of Eastern visitors is very large. The stage for the Geysers, driven by the renowned Foss, is crowded to excess each trip, and recently additional conveyances have been found necessary.

THE iron for the Northern Pacific Railroad will be made from the ore rolled for use, near its Eastern terminus, somewhere in the vicinity of Lake Superior. Competent parties are now looking around for the most convenient and economical location for the furnaces and mills. The charter requires that the iron should be laid exclusively with American iron.

AN AMERICAN NURSE FOR FRENCH SOLDIERS.—A letter from Strasbourg says:

I have just met an artist attached to one of the illustrated papers. "Will you come with me?" he said. "I am about to sketch a young American lady who has come here to nurse our wounded." I followed him to the hospital, where we found her. She was young, pretty, and according to report, rich; certainly an amiable nurse to distract the attention of her patients. For some of these ladies, particularly for this American to whom I refer, the idea of the picturesque has something to do with their determination. The latter is not averse to having her portrait published, and she dressed for that purpose in a costume which reminds one more of an Amazon than an attendant upon the sick—gray felt hat with a white feather; a black tunic, confined at the waist by a belt of varnished leather, with a silver buckle; loose black trousers, fastened just below the knee; and Russian boots, with white spurs. It must be allowed that this costume would do capital for the Opera Comique. She has also three horses—one for herself, another to carry the medicines, and the third for her servant.

CALIFORNIA AND ENGLISH WHEAT.—An interesting and important statement is incidentally made by a correspondent in to-day's issue, in respect to the relative values of California and English wheat in the European market, and the end that the best California wheat ranges in English markets, on the average, fully 25 per cent. above the average price of English wheat in the same markets. Of this increased value is due to the necessity of mixing with the moist English wheat a grain from some other region, which shall be sufficiently dry to take up, without serious injury to itself, the excess of moisture in the English grain. This end can be better attained with the California product than with any other. The general fact of the higher price of California wheat in the European market is well known; but that so great a premium is paid, we believe, was never before known, if not to most of our readers. It may safely be assumed that this important feature in California wheat will always secure for it, at least a limited market in Liverpool, even when there is an excess in the European crops; because a No. 1 flour cannot be made from unmixing English wheat.

MEKKEL CALM.—A Republican paper, in view of the certainty of large Democratic gains in the next Congress, has come to the conclusion that "it is not only better for the country, but for the Republican party, that the majority should be small rather than large." Street are the uses of adversity, it teaches resignation, and reconciles one to what would be rebelled against in days of prosperity. We are glad to find our Republican friends taking some interest in the welfare of the country, and are not surprised to find that they only look to Democratic supremacy as the only means by which prosperity can be regained.—Reporter.
